My name is Ryan Miller, and I am a financial advisor with GuideStone®. I understand that everyone's story is different, and as a result, a personalized strategy that considers these unique factors is often necessary. I will listen to your story and come alongside you to provide investment advice and guidance with a strategic plan tailored to meet your financial needs and goals.

I graduated with honors and hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy, politics and economics (PPE) from the University of Pennsylvania with a minor in consumer psychology through the Wharton School of Business. Prior to coming to GuideStone, I was a human capital consultant at a large global professional services firm and a financial planning consultant at a multinational financial services institution, where I earned my Series 7 and 66 financial licenses*.

I am originally from Pennsylvania and lived in Philadelphia, London and New York City before moving to Dallas. My wife, Brooke, and I enjoy exploring new restaurants, traveling abroad, biking, cooking, attending concerts and going to sporting events to support my Philadelphia teams. In addition, my wife and I also enjoy being actively involved at our church and volunteering at various places throughout the DFW Metroplex.

At GuideStone, our goal is to provide a biblical perspective on money management and enable you to honor the Lord with your finances in the same way you honor the Lord with your work. So, regardless of what level of resources the Lord has entrusted to you, let me help you steward them wisely. It is my pleasure to serve those who have spent their lives serving the Kingdom — how can I serve you?

Please reach out to me using the contact information listed above. I look forward to working with you soon!
